Dear N C Visitor,
Greetings !

This is to announce that Development Associates International (DAI)'s MA in Organizational Leadership (MAOL) program for 2nd Cohort (batch) in Nepal is opened for all interested and eligible Nepalese as well as expatriates/missionaries. Please be informed of the following information in this regard.

Application Form closing date : 15 April, 2010

Test : First/Second Week of May, 2010

Orientation/Final Selection : May/June, 2010

The First Residency Dates : September 26 - Oct 01, 2010.

DAI's MAOL is Masters degree program that enhances leadership skills and brings qualitative change by transformation. The degree is primarily earned through Distance Education (with two one-week residencies required each year) while remaining actively involved in job or ministry. This program is jointly offered by Development Associates International and Ebenezer Bible College—MA degree will be awarded by Nepal Ebenezer Bible College, accredited by Asia Theological Association (ATA). (For fees, duration and other details, please see the Brochure attached herewith).

If you are interested in this degree program, or would like to recommend someone from your organization, Church, institution or college, please find attached the application form, brochure and an overview document. We request you to please respond as soon as possible to reserve the seat. If you find difficulty in opening the attached documents, please let us know.

Should you have any queries or concerns, please feel free to contact either of us.
